

Department of English and Foreign Languages

ACTIVITIES BY QUILLS LITERARY CLUB

2024-2025

Sl.NO	Title of the activity	Link	Number of Participants
1.	Commemorative Day 5.6.2024, Aquifer: Essay Writing Competition, World Environment Day 'Aquifer: Essay writing competition' was organised on world environment day, 5.6.2024. The efforts of the department were recognized by the United Nations Environment Program, 2024. It put RBVRR Women's College on the global map; along with many institutions which encourage climate conservation. The Department was awarded a certificate by UNEP in recognition of our work. Outcome: Enhanced writing and analytical skills of students	View	Participants: 11
2.	19.6.2024: Commemorative Day, National Reading Day Students made oral presentations on books and the culture of reading by students and faculty. Outcome: Students develop public	View	Participants: 20

	speaking and leadership skills.
3.	12.09.2024: Commemorative day: Digvijay Diwas Celebration Essay writing Competition on Digvijay Diwas, 12.9.2024 Students of several departments participated in the essay writing competition. They wrote about the state of women's safety in the country. Jahnavi Malisetty, BTCFS Ist Year won the first prize. Topic: Women of India: Myth and Reality		Number of Participants: 15
4.	10.9.2024: Extension Activity, Book Donation Camp. The college concluded the Three-month long book donation camp in Collaboration with India Reading Olympiad concluded. Forty Books were donated. Coordinator: Dr M Suchitra Program Coordinator: Dr Jhilam Chattaraj	View	Participants: 57
5.	25.1.2025-27.1.2025, Field Trip to the Hyderabad Literary Festival Dr Jhilam Chattaraj was accompanied by students of ELL Final year for a field trip to the Hyderabad Literary Festival, 27.1. 2025, Sattva Knowledge City, Hyderabad. The students attended several sessions on literature and culture. Two students Bhumika Raikote and Varshitha Velapoori performed their songs and poetry at the festival. Program Coordinator: Dr Jhilam Chattaraj	Photo:	Students: 08 ELL BA

6.	13.2.2025, Commemorative Day, National Women's Day The Department of English celebrated National Women's Day on the 13th of February. Ms Aastha Maheshwari, digital content creator, vlogger, social media influencer was the speaker for the event. She enlightened the students about the employment prospects in media and the consistency required to produce digital content. Program Coordinator: Dr Jhilaam Chattaraj Department of English and Foreign Languages, RBVRR Women's College organised a guest lecture on the occasion of National Women's Day also the 146th Birth Anniversary of Sarojini Naidu. Ms Aastha Maheshwari, a Hyderabad-based travel blogger, social media influencer with more than 57 thousand followers at her aastha in wanderland handle at Instagram was the resource person. She guided the students about a career in digital content writing, and creating successful media channels. Ms Aastha was in conversation with city-based poet, academic and program coordinator Dr Jhilaam Chattaraj. Students who already are content creators asked interesting questions about the longevity and risk in pursuing a career in social media. Dr M Suchitra, Head of the Department felicitated the guest and encouraged her lively interaction with students. The formal lecture was followed by speeches, dance, creative fashion shows, stand-up comedy and art exhibitions by students of various disciplines. The session enlightened students about entrepreneurship opportunities and leadership skills.	Brochure: View
7.	18.02.2025. ,The department organised a	Photo	15 participants cultural collaborative activity with Barcelona based anthropologist and writer, Marria Arranz, on The cultural awareness program was attended by 15 students.

--	--	--	--